"We have been so often twitted with being a secret society that we have coneluded to let outsiders know just how we initiate persons in Good Templar Lodges. A cotemporary tells it so well that we propose to use his words; In the first place the victim is blindfolded, bound hand and foot and thrown into a eider press and pressed for five minutes. This is done for the purpose of clearing his system of "old drunks." He is then taken out of the elder press and by means of a force pump gerged with els-tern water, after which a scaling plaster is placed over his mouth and he is rolled in a barrel four or five times neross the CHAINS, room; the choir at the same time singing the cold water song. He is now taken out of the barrel and living up by the heels (iff the water runs through his ones. He is then out down, and a beautiful young lady hands him a glass of elstern water. He is then made to read the Water Works act ten times, drinking a glass of eistern water between each reading. After which the old oaken bucket is hung around his neck, and to sisters with squirt gans deloge him with elstern water. He is then forced to ent a peck of snow, while the brothers stick his ears full of leicles. He is then run through a clothes wringer, after which he is handed a glass of cistern water by a young lady. He is again gorged with cistern water, and plated ware. his boots filled with the same, and he haid away in a refrigerator. The initia-tion is now almost concluded. Afterretion is now almost concluded that have been space of half an hour, he is again taken the space of half and hour, he is again to be a space of half and hour, he is again to be a space of half and hour, he is again to be a space of half and hour, he is again to be a space of half and hour, he is again to be a space of half and hour, he is again to be a space of half and hour, he is again to be a space of half and hour, he had not have a space of half and half and hour, he had not have a space of half and out and given a glass of eistern water, run through a clothes-wringer, and becomes a Good Templar.
